

Stanford Medicine and UCSF present:

COMMUNITY EDUCATION DAY FOR PSYCHOSIS

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2019
8:30 AM – 3:00 PM

Service Users, Family Members, and Providers
All are Welcome!

TOPICS TO INCLUDE

Compassion Focused Therapy (CFT) for Psychosis

Dr. Charlie Heriot-Maitland, Balanced Minds, University of Glasgow

“Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for psychosis: individuals, groups, and family interventions”

Kate Hardy, Clin.Psych.D., INSPIRE Clinic, Stanford University

“Medication Overview”

Demian Rose, MD, PhD, UCSF Path Program

Trauma and Psychosis

Nichole Olson, PhD, INSPIRE Clinic, Stanford University

Cannabis and Psychosis

Daniel Mathalon, PhD, MD, UCSF Path Program

Exercise & Wellness

Jake Ballon, MD, INSPIRE Clinic, Stanford University

Advocacy and Community Involvement

Panel discussion with representatives from community agencies

Stakeholder Panel

Panel discussion with service users and family members

Redwood City
Community Activities Building
1400 Roosevelt Avenue
Redwood City, CA 94061

Register for this FREE Event at:

<https://communityeducationdayforpsychosis.eventbrite.com>

- Lunch will be provided
- Community Resource Tables
- FREE Parking

For more information, email:

Katherine Eisen

keisen@stanford.edu

Community agencies confirmed so far...

